Dated 31st December 1892.

Has the honour to state that the undersigned has got the quadrangle in front of the Vaudi temple planted with cocoanut trees, leaving sufficient space for the passage of cars. It is necessary to water these plants in the hot season.

2. Has the honour therefore to request that two men on Rupees two per mensem may be sanctioned temporarily to be entertained for 6 or 8 months in the year according to necessity for 3 years. There are at present 200 plants which when grown will constitute valuable property yielding an annual revenue to the temple.

3. The Amildar's report giving information about the surplus fund of the temple is appended. It is very small and may be required for other purpose. It would therefore be desirable to address the Muzrai Superintendent to make this grant from some other available source such as the Mungeroy Surplus Fund. Very early orders are solicited.
